

Alaska Academy of Family Physicians
2021 Winter Update Tentative Updated 12/28/2020

Friday March 12, 2021

8:00-12:30 AM	Group KSA Palliative Care
12:30-1:30	Leadership Lecture	John Franko, MD
1:30- 2:30 PM	Professionalism	Bob Phillips, MD
2:30 – 3:30	Opioid Lecture-	TBD
3:30 – 4:00	Break
4:00 – 5:00	Strategies for Increasing Recognition and Diagnosis of Patients With Heart Failure: Evaluating the Role of Natriuretic Peptides As Clinical Biomarkers	Karol E. Watson, MD, PhD

Saturday March 13, 2021

8:00-9:00	The Role of the Family Practice Provider in the Diagnosis, Management, and Referral of Patients with Ankylosing Spondylitis	TBD
9:00-10:00	Current and Emerging Therapies for Endometriosis and Uterine Fibroids: What Do You Need to Know?	Georgine Lamvu, MD, MPH
10:00-10:30	Break
10:30 -11:30	Reproductive Health Care; Conversations for Family Physicians and Their Patients	California Jeri Davis
11:30 -12:00	This Is My Why	Bill Eggimann, MD
12:30-4:00	Group KSA Health Behaviors	TBD

Sunday March 14, 2021

8:00 – 9:00	Eating Disorders What Family Medicine Physicians Need to Know	Jenny Jennifer L. Gaudiani, MD, CEDS-S
9:00 - 9:30	This Is My Why	Laura Walters, MD
9:30- 9:45	Break
9:45- 10:45	TBD
10:45- 11:45	Opioid Lecture 2

CME Credit will be applied for. We anticipate 11 CME Credits for the regular CME sessions with an additional 8 CME Credits and 10 MOC Credits for each Group KSA. If you attend the full conference that is 27 AAFP CME credits and 20 ABFM MOC Credits.